

Daniele named to Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company of MA

By Staff reports

Christopher Daniele was recently enrolled as a member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts at the Company headquarters at Faneuil Hall, Boston. At the conclusion of his swearing the oath of membership, Daniele was invited to sign the Company rolls which date to 1638. Mr. Daniele will be serving with other members from Medfield and the surrounding community. The Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company was Chartered by the Great and General Court of Massachusetts and Governor Winthrop in 1638 to train gentlemen as officers for the Massachusetts Militia, a role which the Company fulfilled until 1912. In addition the Company has served as a ceremonial unit for the Governor and the City of Boston; and as a patriotic, fraternal organization. The Company has been headquartered at Faneuil Hall since 1745. Today's members include distinguished professionals, businessmen, clerics, serving and retired military officers, including two Medal of Honor recipients; patriots all. Over the centuries the roll reads as a who's who of Massachusetts history including President John F. Kennedy, President Calvin Coolidge, patriot William Dawes, MG Benjamin Lincoln, Senator Leverett Saltonstall, James Michael Curley, Christian Herter and so on. The Company also operates a unique military museum on the 4th Floor of Faneuil Hall open Monday thru Friday 9 a.m. until 3 p.m..
